- I do want Canyon State Credit Union to authorize and pay overdrafts on:
- checks written, ACH transactions, preauthorized automatic transfers, internet banking, and telephone banking, plus
 - ATM withdrawals and one-time debit card transactions.

If this is a joint account, I agree that the signature of only one accountholder is necessary for the Credit Union to authorize and pay overdrafts as indicated above.

If you authorize Canyon State Credit Union to pay overdrafts for ATM withdrawals and one-time debit card transactions, you or any joint owner on the referenced account may revoke it at any time by contacting the credit union in writing.

- I do want Canyon State Credit Union to authorize and pay overdrafts on:
- checks written, ACH transactions, preauthorized automatic transfers, internet banking, and telephone banking, but not on
 - ATM withdrawals and one-time debit card transactions.

If this is a joint account, I agree that the signature of only one accountholder is necessary for the Credit Union to authorize and pay overdrafts as indicated above. I understand ATM withdrawals and one-time debit card transactions will be denied, if there are not sufficient funds in my account to cover the transactions.

- I do not want Canyon State Credit Union to authorize Overdraft Privilege on any type of payments or withdrawals. I elect to opt-out completely from the program. If this is a joint account, I agree that the signature of only one accountholder is necessary for the Credit Union to suspend the Overdraft Privilege.
- By opting out of Overdraft Privilege, I understand that the Credit Union will return unpaid all items presented against insufficient funds. I agree to hold the Credit Union harmless, and without liability, for any Payee fees or other consequences that may result from this action. The Credit Union will continue to charge its $30 NSF fee for any transactions presented to the Credit Union drawn on insufficient funds.

I/we have the right for the Credit Union to reinstate this program at any time on the condition I/we provide them the request to do so in written documentation and qualify for the service.

Canyon State Credit Union Overdraft Privilege Account Disclosure

We believe it is important for you to use your checking account responsibly and to never intentionally overdraw your account. However, we realize that financial shortfalls happen from time to time and we have several options available for you. As a benefit to our members, we offer these useful services to cover you in the event that you overdraw your checking account.

Overdraft Protection Options:

Transfer from another account – You can authorize us to transfer the funds needed to cover your overdraft from other accounts you have with us. Limitations and fees may apply. Please refer to our Truth-in-Savings disclosure and Fee Schedule.

Line of Credit – A line of credit is available to cover overdrafts. This service requires you to complete a loan application and approval is based on your credit worthiness. The amount of your limit varies. Line of Credit advances are transferred in increments equal to the amount needed to cover the presented check or withdrawal.

Overdraft Privilege – Overdraft Privilege is a service we add to your checking account to cover overdrafts to a set limit, subject to the eligibility criteria as explained below. With Overdraft Privilege we will generally pay your overdraft items up to $500, however, whether your overdrafts will be paid is discretionary and we reserve the right not to pay. For example, we typically do not pay overdrafts if your account is not in good standing, or you are not making regular deposits, or you have too many overdrafts. When we pay overdraft items for you, you will be charged our normal overdraft fee, currently $30, for each item that is presented. Both the amount of the overdraft items and all applicable fees, including but not limited to the $30 overdraft fees, are included in this limit.

Overdraft Privilege Disclosure:

Eligibility Criteria – No application is required for the Overdraft Privilege; eligibility is at the sole discretion of the Credit Union and is based on you managing your checking account in a responsible manner. You will be eligible for the Overdraft Privilege unless:

- You are more than 30 days past due on any Credit Union loan or delinquent on any other obligation to the Credit Union.
- You are subject to any legal or administrative orders, levy, or are currently a party in a bankruptcy proceeding.
- You have an outstanding balance on an Overdraft Repayment Plan.
- An extended hold is being placed on your checking account or any other account relationship, in which case your Overdraft Privilege will be suspended without prior notice.
- You are a minor.
- A ChexSystems or any other negative indicator is present.
- You have an account that has been opened less than 30 days.
- Your account is a fiduciary trust or escrow account.
- Your account is classified as dormant.
- Your account type is not eligible.
- Your account is being reviewed for fraudulent activity or transactions.
- You have an unresolved prior loss with the Credit Union.
- We do not have a valid address for you.
- You have Overdraft Privilege on another account on which you are the primary account holder.

Suspension/Removal of Privilege – You may be suspended or removed immediately from the Overdraft Privilege if:

- You do not bring your account to a positive balance within a 30 day period.
- You fail to meet our eligibility criteria.
- You have had multiple Overdraft Privilege Repayment Plans within the last two years.
- You have not made payments as agreed.
- If you meet all the criteria listed above, we may still remove the privilege if we believe you are not managing your account in a responsible manner which may harm you or us.

Transactions Eligible For Overdraft Privilege – Overdraft Privilege will be available for all checks written, ACH transactions, preauthorized automatic transfers, internet banking, and telephone banking. Overdraft Privilege will not be available for ATM withdrawals and one-time debit card transactions unless you authorize the Credit Union by selecting the Opt In Option for ATM withdrawals and one-time debit card transactions on the attached Overdraft Privilege Consent

Form and returning it to Canyon State Credit Union. Note: if you have consented to Overdraft Privilege for ATM transactions, please verify your balance before initiating an ATM cash withdrawal. All overdrafts will be subject to our $30.00 overdraft fee for each withdrawal until the account returns to a positive balance.

Overdraft Privilege Opt Out – You may never need to take advantage of Overdraft Privilege, but you may find it useful in the event of a temporary shortfall. If you do not want to have Overdraft Privilege, simply mark the appropriate selection on the attached form and return it to Canyon State Credit Union. It is important for you to consider that there is no additional cost for Overdraft Privilege and that by opting out you are instructing us to return unpaid all items presented against insufficient funds.

If you opt out, you will still be charged our $30.00 returned item fee. Members who receive a Social Security, federal direct deposit, or any other entitlement must opt out if they do not want the Credit Union to apply those funds to pay an overdraft.

Payment Order of Items – The order in which items are presented may affect the total fees incurred by a member. Transactions are posted in the order they are presented with the exception of checks which are posted lowest to highest when processed.

Additional Information – Your membership and account agreement describes the duties, obligations, and rights of depositors, authorized signatories and the Credit Union with regard to your deposit accounts. That membership and account agreement is incorporated herein for all purposes as if it were set forth verbatim as to matters not directly addressed by this disclosure. Your membership and account agreement and this disclosure shall be construed so as to minimize conflicts between them.

Financial Education

The Credit Union believes that financial literacy and education helps consumers make informed decisions.
